

2012 Crisis Response Training

Crisis Response Training: Caring for our Community

When disaster strikes, victims and our neighbors look to the faith community for help. To effectively serve those in need we must be prepared to take action. Join us on March 16 to begin building resilience in your congregation and to become equipped to serve the victims of disaster events.

Preparing the Inter - Denominational Faith Community to Respond

March 16, 2012
graceway
5460 Blue Ridge Cut-Off
Kansas City, MO 64133

Training Topics:

Prepare: What you need to know and do before you respond

Refuge: Providing Shelter Services

Feed: Setting up and Managing a Feeding Center

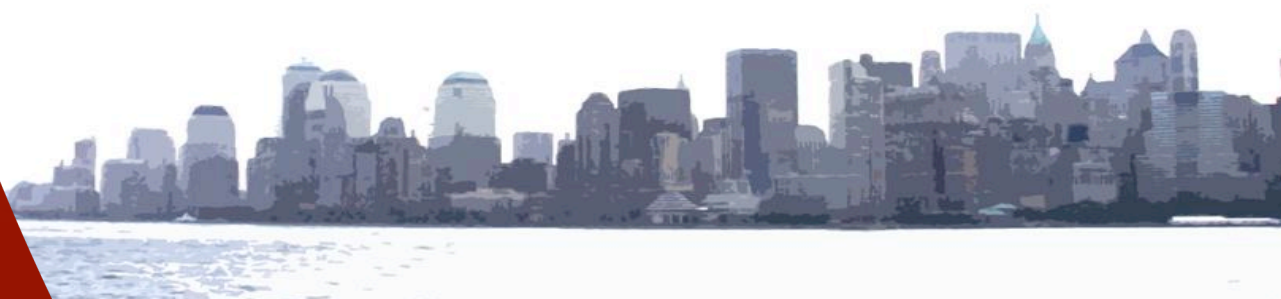

Care: Serving the Spiritual and Emotional Needs of Victims and Responders

Team: Working with others

Go & Do: Preparing yourself and congregation

Learn More At:

www.inmed.us/crisis_response_training.asp

2012 Crisis Response Training Registration

Name: _____

Academic Degree: _____

Ministry/Organization: _____

Home Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Cost:

Includes: Access to all event activities, training handouts and presentations, snacks, and lunch.

October 01, 2012 - January 01, 2012 - $35 per/person

January 02, 2012 - March 15, 2012 - $50 per/person

Day of - $65 per/person

* Discount rates are available for groups of 5 or more. Please contact office@inmed.us for more details.

Please make checks payable to INMED and mail completed registration to:

Institute for International Medicine
6400 Prospect Ave., Ste. 338-A
Kansas City, MO 64132

OR REGISTER ONLINE AT:

www.inmed.us/crisis_response_training.asp

Event Partners:
St. Paul's Episcopal Church and Midtown Baptist Temple

