

Institute for International Medicine
MIH Learner Initial Advising and Orientation Meeting

- Review of the elements and outstanding requirements of the MIH degree
- Introduce the Academic Catalog and Student Handbook
- Discussion of potential scholarly project subjects
- Discussion of service-learning options
- Discussion of interests of the individual student and how INMED is engaging or could better engage in these interests
- Discussion of connections INMED might make with learners/alumni/faculty with similar interests
- Ask students about friends who might be potential INMED students
- Overview of the LMS navigation
- Overview of Student Resources, Submit a Form, Student Support
- Scheduling advising at end of each Term
- Develop a plan of what courses to take during which terms to complete the degree
- Selection of a provisional graduation date
- Future career options