

Institute for International Medicine New Faculty Orientation

I. Introduction

- New faculty members will attend a comprehensive orientation program that includes an overview of the institution's mission, policies, and procedures related to teaching, learning, and scholarship. Content of the new faculty orientation program includes: the following.

II. Review of INMED:

- Mission
- Values
- Statement of Faith
- History
- Organizational Chart/Leadership
- Faculty
- Accreditation
- Financial Remuneration
- Educational options for prospective learners
- Master's Degree in International Health
- Graduate Diplomas
- Training sites
- Academic calendar
- Academic credit courses
- Short self-paced courses
- Tuition
- Graduates
- Alumni service program
- Conferences

III. Introduction to core INMED technology:

- LearnDash LMS features
- MS Office
- Zoom
- JotForm

IV. Introduction to INMED policies and resources:

- Faculty Handbook
- Course timeline protocol
- Faculty Resources

V. Ongoing Support

- Access to instructional/library resources
- Professional development opportunities
- Faculty Mentorship